Re-opening
Bode Museum

The Festive Season in Berlin

Christmas
in Berlin

To our friends and guests,

New Year's Eve

The unique and unforgettable Berlin is smartening up and preparing for the forthcoming Festive Season. As days grow short and evenings dark, the city sparkles and shines in all its facets - Berlin excels in donning it's finest and most dazzling garb.

The prelude to the 2006/2007 season is the eagerly awaited re-opening of the Bode Museum. This magnificently restored museum opened to the public just a few days ago, hereby setting the ultimate milestone in the completion of the World Heritage Site on Berlin's Museum Island. Visitors look forward with anticipation to the most important sculpture collection north of the Alps, in authentically recreated room sets by great Italian Renaissance Masters such as Giovanni Battista Tiepolo, also the Turquoise Gobelin Hall with it's monastic panelling, the simply breathtaking Italian altars in the museum's Basilica, the Old Dutch Masters under impressive coffered ceilings and ultimately the elaborately gilded, magnificently framed Great Elector himself.

It is our pleasure to ensure that you will find open doors, we lead you past the waiting visitors and towards a thoroughly privileged experience - the introduction to the most precious highlights of this unique museum.

Our art historian Dr. Peter Siebel has elaborated a small programme and looks forward to share his passion and knowledge with you during his personal tour.

This fabulous `Culture Gem´ is part of a special arrangement for our guests, comprising a two nights stay at the BRANDENBURGER HOF, transfers, the Bode Museum private guided tour and at the end of the day a divine culinary surprise: a four course dinner created specially by Master Chef Bobby Bräuer and served in our QUADRIGA restaurant. All this at a special tariff from € 470,00 per person.

Rest assured that you will have spare time for a leisurely stroll along the glittering Kurfürstendamm and the sweet temptation of Christmas shopping, we even provide a parcel concierge service for you!

Christmas in Berlin

Christmas in Berlin means to let go and to arrive in a world of it's own. Preparations have been painstaking - the city's grandest stages are vying for your favour, world famous museums look forward to your visit, festively illuminated Boulevards invite you to leisurely walks and our house embraces you with a warm welcome, inviting you to enjoy precious privacy and graceful elegance.

Master Chef Bobby Bräuer performs his magic in the QUADRIGA restaurant with crisp goose, delicate filet of venison and truffled pigeon, while Afternoon Tea in the lounge tempts with chocolate soufflés, nut brittle, stuffed apples and glazed chestnuts. Culinary Heaven!

We trust our Christmas arrangement may evoke some festive anticipation, for details please read on: http://www.brandenburger-hof.com/e/reservierung/logis\_arrangements.php

New Year's Eve in Berlin - three memorable days filled with music

Don Juan and the Rosenkavalier are on the programme at the Berliner Philharmonie, under the baton of Sir Simon Rattle. And then on New Year's Eve the BRANDENBURGER HOF stages a culinary opera conducted by Master Chef Bobby Bräuer; later that night we marvel at the fireworks in the presence of one hundred exclusive guests and we let ourselves be carried into the new year by the wonderful voice of Agnes Heginiger and the band's fabulous repertoire ranging from mellow Jazz to Bossa Nova.

A night created with ease, performed with finesse and filled with joy - a touch of magic!

The details of our three-day New Year arrangement can be found at: http://www.brandenburger-hof.com/e/reservierung/logis\_arrangements.php

Many more special `Berlin Moments´ are awaiting your discovery, we look forward to your visit and to the privilege of looking after you at the BRANDENBURGER HOF.
